An Entertainment.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U., will give an entertainment at Smith's Opera Hall on the evening of the 11th of December. Further particulars next week.

An Incident.

One of Kirkville's young "fellows" quite well known in social circles came near getting into trouble one evening this week, but was saved by a display of "ready wit." It is related that just after leaving the lecture at Smith's Opera House, and passing from the glare of the street lamp, he permitted his arm to gently encompass the waist of his girl, and quicker than you can say "scat" received a reprimand far from soothing. "Pardon me he replied, your waist is so slender I mistook it for your arm." He was pardoned.

There is no use of any more dull lights if you get your oil at Jamison's Drug Store.

New Landlord.

Mr. John Zener, of Macon county, has purchased the Kirkville House opposite the depot, of C. Timmer, and takes possession to-morrow. The name of the house will be changed to the "St. John" and it will be fitted up and run in a first class manner.

Shane, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkes, Miss Mollie Wilkes, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Marmaduke, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bailey, F. W. Sipple, of Macon, Mr. Geo. P. Brammer, of LaPlata, and Mr. Johnson Morrow, of Macon. In Memory of Lewis Garner.

GARNER-Died at his home seven miles northwest of this city, Mr. Lewis Garner, of typhoid fever, April 26 years. Lewis was loved by all who knew him.
Our brother is not dead
He has only gone before
Transplanted by our father's hand
Upon the other bright shore.
Grieving parents, cease your sorrow!
O'er your child no longer weep
He has left this world of sorrow
He gives his beloved sleep.
Friends rejoice for him no longer
Brothers, sisters shed no bitter tears
But his bright example follow
Though life's remembrance years.
Farewell Lewis, we will miss thee
None to us can take your place
But we feel that thou art safe in heaven
In our blessed Saviour's embrace

Normal Notes.

A number of the town ministers were present at the opening exercises last Monday. Rev. J. O. Edmonson led the exercises.

Among the new students are Isom Roberts and J. H. Roney, who formerly attended. They enter the three year's class.

Miss Ina Dowden of Edina, sister of M. S. Dowden, was visiting the school on Tuesday. Also Mr. McCann of Macon county, whose daughter has just entered.

"To grade, or not to grade, that is the question" with the three year's students. At least they seem agitated over some such question at present.

Prof. Blanton read to the school the other day an excellent remark from a letter from C. C. Childress on the practical benefits to be derived from a careful study of the Model School, which is so well handled by Miss Jayne.

Silas Dinsmoor has organized a class in German to meet after school. Mr. Dinsmoor has already won the reputation of being a fine linguist.

Prof. Barnard thinks eating raisins and studying logic are conflictives. He intends calling on Miss Sharpe and Mr. Barrow to derive those concepts and show their relations.

The second term starts out with good prospects of a larger attendance than usual; up to Wednesday there were 283 enrolled.

The teachers and students spent Thursday at their homes studying fowl anatomy.

The "Chapel Hymn Book" has been selected for the school to use in the opening exercises. The choir sing one song now and the school one; instead of the choir doing all the singing as was formerly the case.

Dr. DeHass delivered his noted lecture on "Buried cities" at the Normal Thursday after school. The lecture was both instructive and entertaining.

That Rush

Was caused by the word going out that goods were being sold at cost at the Palace Store of W. B. Harlan.

One day they took in over $300 cash and still the boom continues and will until Jan 1st, 1884. and it is a fact that such bargains were never given before in Kirkville. Come and see while the rush is going on. Remember you can get goods at your own prices.

Boots and shoes are still being sold very cheap at the Star Store.

Special Call.

All parties knowing themselves to be indebted to Douglas & Son either by note or account will confer a favor by making an early settlement. n 32-5t

Nov. 26. Had quite a wind storm last night. However no damage farther than the night occasioned by every appearance of a storm, in this cyclone period.

Preaching here on Sunday by the Rev. Mr. Collin.

Farmers are gathering their corn. They claim a fine yield, but not superior in quality.

Mr. Collis seems to be giving good satisfaction in our school.

Dan may still be seen at short intervals, wending his way in the direction of the Bear Creek forests. The "Woods" seem to have great attractions for him.

The county Commissioner visited our school last week. We did not hear that he examined the school, but made a few remarks and hastened on.

On last Saturday James Denton and wife in a spring wagon with a span of spirited horses belonging to Frank Spenser, started to LaPlata. At the railroad as they went into town, the horses took fright, ran, and tore things up generally, throwing them both out.

Some friend brought them home. Dr. Pulliam was called in to see them and reports Mr. D. seriously injured internally. Thanksgiving draws nigh.

With its visions of turkey roast; Cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie, And every nic-nack a'most.

Queen City Mill.

Inadvertently last week, in writing up Queen City, we dropped the page of the manuscript containing a description of one of its leading institutions. We allude to Bennett's flouring mill. They do all kinds of grinding and turn out splendid grades of wheat, buckwheat and rye flour, corn meal and the celebrated Bennett Graham flour. This mill draws business from a wide extent of territory including portions of Adair, Sullivan and Putnam counties.
